1. Engaging in Essential Services
2. Working in Critical Infrastructure
3. Engaging in Minimum Basic Operations
4. Performing Necessary Travel

Wear a cloth face cover if you go out

You can go to the grocery store, medical appointments and the pharmacy. You can pick-up food or have food delivered to your house. You can leave your house to buy supplies to clean or maintain your house. You can go outside to exercise. You can also leave your house in an emergency.

The key takeaway is that you need to stay in/at your house as much as possible, Limit travel unless necessary (food, doctor appointments, pharmacy) to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

No more than 10 people gathered in a single location

Other business entities

Critical Infrastructure means businesses, establishments, corporations, non-profit corporations and organizations as defined by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security as "essential critical infrastructure workforce. The operation of Critical Infrastructure shall not be impeded by county, municipal or local ordinance. The following sectors are included as critical infrastructure: Chemical, Commercial Facilities Communications, Critical Manufacturing, Dams, Defense Industrial Base, Emergency Services, Energy, Financial Services, Food and Agriculture, Government Facilities, Healthcare and Public Health, Information Technology, Nuclear Reactors, Materials, and Waste, Transportation Systems and Water and Wastewater Systems.

Non-Critical Infrastructure entities shall comply with the Social Distancing Rule, meet the definition of Minimum Basic Operations, and comply with twenty (20) requirements outlined in the order.

No business, establishment, for-profit or non-profit corporation or organization is allowed to have more than ten (10) people gathering in a single location unless there is at least six feet between each person at all times. This rule applies to church services and funeral services. You can visit state parks & be outside but must follow the same social distancing guidelines including staying six feet apart and no more than 10 in a group.
